

18th century country estate in the neoclassical style

Ref: 5107

Country Estate in Ferreries

Upon Request

Built Area: 2.000 m<sup>2</sup>

Plot Size: 1.250.000 m<sup>2</sup>

Spectacular 18th Century country estate, whose main house was built in the neoclassical style with Palladian architectural influence. It has been declared of cultural interest for its buildings and gardens. It has a chapel with a barrel vaulted ceiling and segmental arches dedicated to the 'Mare de Deu del Carme'. With 125 hectares of land and some 2,000 m<sup>2</sup> of buildings, it alternates agricultural and touristic use, making it a unique property.

A jewel located in an exceptional location that brings together all the charms of the island of Menorca.