In the highly sought-after area of Torret de Baix in the elevated part of Binibeca, we present you with this fantastically well-positioned recently built villa, ideal for someone looking to finish a project to add their own taste and style. Built on a plot of almost 1400 m² means the property has the potential to be developed and extended by almost a further 125 m². As the plot is on one level there is the opportunity to create a family-friendly landscaped garden with a lawn arranged around the amazing infinity swimming pool with sweeping sea views from every angle.
