Charming and authentic Minorcan country house, located in a rural environment and a short distance from the towns of San Luis and Es Castell. The house has retained many of its original features and has plenty of charm. The large terrace in front of the house leads to a beautiful area with swimming pool, surrounded by a large mature garden with fruit trees. When entering, the wide entrance hall leads to the different areas of the house. On the ground floor there is a living room, dining room and kitchen, a large double bedroom, a smaller adjoining bedroom, a bathroom and another living room with fireplace. On the upper floor there are two large double rooms, one of which has its own terrace, as well as a bathroom. There is also an independent annex with two rooms, living room, bathroom and small kitchen. The property enjoys easy access and ample parking. The house has a tourist licence.
