Impeccable modern villa a few steps from the sea in the exclusive area of Cala Partió with access to the jetty and mooring. Built at the end of the 1960s and completely renovated in 2018, the house has a unique design since it was designed by a Swedish architect who created two independent spaces. The living room and kitchen share an open space on the ground floor that giving access to the master bedroom, a small bedroom and a large covered terrace with unbeatable views of the Mahón harbour and the pool area. The two guest bedrooms are located on the first floor and are accessed through an independent external staircase from the main area. The sale of the house includes a Zodiac boat, an electric vehicle and a mooring on the jetty in front of the villa.
